

World's Greatest Hobby on Tour
Our mission is to grow the hobby of model railroading

January 22, 2015

Press Release

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

30,799 people attend Raleigh World's Greatest Hobby on Tour Show, setting a new record for a North Carolina train show!

On the weekend of January 17 & 18, 2015, the World's Greatest Hobby on Tour made its debut trip to Raleigh, North Carolina. The weekend attendance was 30,799 making this the highest attended train show ever held in the state of North Carolina. This was the second World's Greatest Hobby on Tour show this year with an attendance of over 30,000 people. The Hampton, Virginia show the week before had an attendance of 31,379 people.

The World's Greatest Hobby on Tour continues to introduce the general public to the hobby of model railroading in an exciting, family-oriented atmosphere. The show includes the hobby's major manufacturers, hobby shops, operating displays, interactive activities, workshops and provides an in-person introduction to the World's Greatest Hobby.

The next three World's Greatest Hobby on Tour shows in 2015 are:

February 7 & 8, 2015 • Columbus, Ohio

February 14 & 15, 2015 • Louisville, Kentucky

March 28 & 29, 2015 • Edison, New Jersey

The World's Greatest Hobby on Tour shows have attracted over 1,200,000 attendees since the show was founded in 2004. In addition, the television advertising for the event has showcased model railroading to over 60 million people.

The show is still accepting exhibitor applications for the Columbus, Louisville and Edison shows. Exhibit space starts at $225. Visit www.wghshow.com for exhibitor information.
