

World's Greatest Hobby on Tour

January 15, 2013

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

World's Greatest Hobby on Tour Hits One Million Visitor Mark

At America's Center in Saint Louis on Saturday, January 12th the World's Greatest Hobby on Tour passed one million attendees. To celebrate the occasion the one millionth attendee, Adam Coombs of Saint Louis, MO received special recognition and gifts including a train set from Bachmann Trains, and a two night stay at the Saint Louis Union Station Hotel courtesy of Doubletree hotels.

Randy Bachmann, Chairman of the show, stated, "It is a true honor to have promoted model railroading to over one million people. Adam Coombs typifies our efforts to expose young people to model railroading and get them involved in our wonderful hobby".

The World's Greatest Hobby on Tour has sponsored 40 shows since its formation in 2004. The show is designed to introduce the general public to the hobby in an exciting, family-oriented atmosphere. Each show includes manufacturers, hobby shops, operating displays, interactive activities, workshops and provides an in-person introduction model railroading.

The World's Greatest Hobby on Tour has started its 2013 season in stellar fashion with over 25,000 attendees in Fort Worth, Texas on January 5th and 6th and almost 35,000 attendees in Saint Louis on January 12th and 13th. The Saint Louis show also introduced a new attraction, The Choo Choo Bob show sponsored by Walthers. Choo Choo Bob presents a live musical show similar to his popular TV program. The inaugural performance received rave reviews from children and adults.

The next three World's Great Hobby on Tour Shows will be in California starting February 9th, 2013 in the San Diego area. For more information about the World's Greatest Hobby on Tour visit our web site www.WGHShow.com. The web site includes, photos, videos, complete information for attendees, registration and exhibitor information.

World's Greatest Hobby on Tour

Randy Bachmann(left) congratulates Adam Coombs on being the one millionth attendee of the World's Greatest Hobby on Tour Shows. Jack Lynch(right) of Bachmann trains presents Adam Coombs and his brother Daniel Coombs with a train set to further their interest in model railroading.